

ELLA TRAVEL GUIDE!

BY WAYS OF THE WORLD

Nine Arches Bridge

- What: Unmissable stone bridge where the iconic Ella-Kandy train passes by!
- When: Plan to be there when the train passes. Ask a local what time! Tip: it often runs late 😊
- How much: free!

Go Hiking!

- What: Ella Rock = long & challenging. Little Adam's Peak = short & easy. Guided tour to Ella Rock here.
- When: Ella Rock for sunrise, Little Adam's peak for sunset.
- How much: free unless you hire someone

Nildiya Pokuna Ella

- What: gorgeous 5,000 y/o cave system with a crystal clear pool. You need to be in moderately good shape. This one is for the adventurous!
- When: 10 am - 3 pm
- How much: 3,000 rupees not including tip

Dunhinda Waterfall

- What: Beautiful waterfall! Don't carry food with you... MONKEYS! Google Maps sends you the wrong way. Stay on the main road and follow the signs.

General Tips

- Ella is small and walkable, but you'll need to hire a tuktuk to visit the main attractions.
- Tip may be included when eating at more touristy places. Otherwise 10% tip is common.
- Bring appropriate shoes and clothes for the warm temps and hikes... and sunscreen!
- Cash is king ;)

Where to eat:

Ella Village Restaurant

- Friendly and affordable restaurant serving high-quality Sri Lankan dishes on Ella's main street.

Bee's Honey & Cookery

- Amazing family run restaurant that uses fresh ingredients from their own garden! It's a bit outside of town, but worth the effort. Located along the trail to Ella Rock.

Cafe Chill

- Touristy spot with a nice atmosphere and good food. A cool place to grab a few drinks or pizza after a day exploring Ella's beautiful nature.

Where to stay:

Poomaz Peace Palace

- Amazing guesthouse with friendly hosts, great views, and easy access from Ella's main street. We stayed here - it's a 10/10!

Boo Kirinda Holiday Resort (Badulla)

- This is where we stayed during most of our stay. It's a bit outside of Ella, but it is a cozy and quiet spot. You can see the famous Ella train pass by during your meals 😊

Eminence Ella

- Very highly rated and affordable little bed & breakfast located near the center of town.
