

GUIDE TO: SOUTHERN SRI LANKA'S BEACHES!

BY WAYS OF THE WORLD

Mirissa Beach

The vibe: relaxed beach town with yoga retreats and healthy food options.

Best for: digital nomads & families that like having abundant activity and dining options.

What to do: whale watching, surf lessons, snorkel with turtles & sunset at Parrot Rock.

Where to eat: Shady Lane and Dewmini Roti

Midigama Beach

The vibe: chilled surf town right next to more popular surf spot: Weligama

Best for: surfers and people looking for a chill but hip piece of paradise.

What to do: surfing & great for chilling out and watching other people catch waves.

Where to eat: GG Francis & Rockvin Cafe

Talalla Beach

The vibe: super quiet town with a few chilled-out guesthouses and restaurants..

Best for: anyone looking for rest and relaxation.

What to do: beach walks & just chill out :)

Where to eat: Funny Banana and Talalla Juices and Curry.

We hope you enjoy Sri Lanka! The beaches here are epic!!!

Hiriketiya Beach

The vibe: trendiest beach on the list. It is much busier than other beaches on the list.

Best for: younger folks looking to join the crowd and take some surf lessons.

What to do: surf, chill, drink, repeat.

Where to drink: Smoke & Bitters and Kingsley Hot Kitchen.

Goyambokka Beach

The vibe: rustic but upscale, with some great beachside-bungalow accommodations.

Best for: couples looking to unwind in a secluded and private paradise.

What to do: this is the quietest beach of the bunch. But it's close to elephant safaris!

Where to eat: Bamboo Restaurant

QUICK TIPS

More beach tips
